

Brett Lethbridge

Brett Lethbridge's creative talent and inspiring artistic pursuits are establishing him as one of Australia's most exciting and adventurous young artists.

Having finished a Bachelor of Laws at the University of Queensland, Brett took hold of his vocation and began drawing and painting in 1998, whilst working as illustrator and cartoonist at Brisbane's Courier Mail. Winning awards including Best Artist at Queensland media awards, Best artist at the Stanley Awards for Media Art, and the Courier Mail art award, Brett was encouraged to extend his artistic pursuits overseas.

A year in residence in Siena, Italy was followed by numerous international exhibitions including Singapore, Germany, New York, and most recently Romero Britto's gallery in Miami, Florida.

Returning to Australia in 2002 Brett continued to develop his vision and artistic creations with huge passion, energy and commitment resulting in the opening of Lethbridge Gallery in May 2004.

The gallery was built as a home for Lethbridge's works, and to provide a space in which other artists and art lovers could share the creative world.
